DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Authorization to Disclose Confidential Information:

In accordance with the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Ave Maria University (AMU) will not release a student's confidential personal information to a third party without the written consent of the student.

Exceptions Permitted Under FERPA

Ave Maria University accords all the rights under the law to students who are declared dependent, (as defined by SECTION 152 of the Internal Revenue Code), and personnel within the institution (on a need to know basis), to officials of other institutions in which students seek to enroll, to persons or organizations providing students' financial aid, to accrediting agencies carrying out their accreditation function, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of students or other persons. All these exceptions are permitted under the Act.

The purpose of this form is to make clear to whom the student has given consent to receive confidential personal information by checking the department that may release the information below. The student must specify who has permission to receive confidential information.
